O dear, bright stars, fly down, fly down, And make our baby such a crown As men shall joy to see! And who shall rock his cradle bed First place his crown upon his head Faith, Hope, and Charity. THE LILY BED. His cedar paddle, scented, red, He thrust down through the lily bed; Cloaked in a golden pause he lay, Locked in the arms of the placid bay. Trembled alone his bark canoe As shocks of bursting lilies flew Thro the still crystal of the tide, And smote the frail boats birchen side; Or, when beside the sedges thin Rose the sharp silver of a fin; Or when, a wizard swift and cold, A dragon-fly beat out in gold And jewels all the widening rings Of waters singing to his wings; Or, like a...
