A Different Kettle of Fish: A Day in the Life of a Physics Student with Autism

By Michael Barton, Delia Barton

Jessica Kingsley Publishers. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, A Different Kettle of Fish: A Day in the Life of a Physics Student with Autism, Michael Barton, Delia Barton, "I'm looking at the Solar System display when I hear a child close by shouting at his mum, to which she replies 'No need to bite my head off!' I've heard of laughing your head off (to laugh a lot) and even biting your tongue (to be quiet) but biting someone's head off puts a rather more vivid picture into my mind!" During a trip to London, taking in tube announcements, guitar shops, and the Science Museum Michael Barton explores and explains the confusing "neurotypical" world of contradictory signage, hidden meanings and nonsensical figures of speech. His quirky and comic illustrations bring to life the journey from the comfort of his familiar university surroundings into the hectic bustle of central London. A fun and enlightening read for friends, family, caring professionals and anyone interested in an alternative viewpoint on the world. Sure to "strike a chord" with other day trippers on the autism spectrum.
