When planning for your retirement, do many of those heavenly retirement destinations sound just a little too good to be true? Do you find that the recommended retirement savings sound just wonderful for millionaires but a tad absurd for the rest of us? Would you like some real answers to your retirement questions? The authors of the Get Real Guide to Retirement provide balanced no nonsense answers to the full gamut of retirement issues. Unlike those books that cover only finances or how to be happy, the Get Real Guide tells you what you really need to know about: Checking out that idyllic retirement mecca The advantages of renting in retirement Calculating a realistic goal for your retirement funds Supplementing your savings when you don t have enough Planning for living on your own Getting the most from your doctor visits Uncluttering mind and home Why you can t remember stuff anymore Staying active and happy Getting your dream retirement job Making yours the best retirement ever Judith C. Pagel and Franklin H. Schapiro are in an excellent position to provide retirement advice, particularly to the next group of retirees, the Baby Boomers. Both Frank and Judy came into this world just two years before the start of the Baby Boom. As such, they spent a good part of their life experiencing problems which the Baby Boomers would face, but they faced them two years before the Boomers would. (Think of issues like an overly competitive job market and career ladder, and now retirement.) These two big data, high tech doctorates have now been retired a little over six years. They enthusiastically share their first hand retirement experiences...
