Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The SUS stands for Sarma s Unified System, this system designs a new form of Script, not a new language. By this multiple languages can be written without changing the pronunciation sound. This is simple, logical and very easy to memorize. Writing is easy; there will be no scope for bad hand writing and spelling mistakes will be minimal. Number of SUS alphabets is minimal and once one gets the system understood many languages learning will be great fun. The key board numbers will be minimized and mobile will be easy to use specifically in sending texts. Multiple figures are included depicting many languages and comparing the phonetics of different languages.
