Excerpt from Justice and Humanity, Not Revenge, the Only Justification for War: Speech of Hon. George F. Hoar, of Massachusetts, in the Senate of the United States; Thursday, April 14, 1898 The American people have had, in every generation since the landing at Jamestown and at Plymouth, brave soldiers and sailors. There has never been a war from the beginning in which the American ag has suffered dishonor or the glory of the American name been tarnished. But in this field other nations also have been our competitors. Military character, courage in war, have been found in human annals from the beginning of time; but the mission of the Red Cross, with its message of peace and human ity, is wholly and altogether of American origin. It is ours al most exclusively. I think we may trust Clara Barton and may accept her evidence without hesitation. I ask the Secretary to read what is marked. The presiding officer (mr. Faulkner in the chair). The Secretary will read as requested, if there be no objection. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds...
