After the Immigration Act of 1965, which abolished the national origin system and gave priority to the reunification of families, chain immigration in the United States of America started in large numbers. The most visible beneficiaries were the Asians because the quota system was abandoned for them. A lot of Chinese immigrants, especially women, entered the United States with this chain immigration. The high number of women amongst the immigrants was a reason that the former bachelor s society which means that the Chinese male population outnumbered Chinese women in New York City on a large scale turned into an almost well balanced one. The labor force of the newly arrived women enabled the growth of New York City s garment industry. According to some statistics of Min Zhou and Regina Nordquist, the concentration of immigrant Chinese women in the garment industry was and still is extraordinary. Almost 85% of the work force in Chinatown s garment industry are immigrant women, and the largest group of them are Chinese immigrant women (Zhou/ Nordquist 262). Because of the large-scale immigration after 1965 and the large supply of female work force, the garment industry of New York City s Chinatown continued to be based on low-cost immigrant labor (Zhou/ Nordquist 261). Overall, more than half of...
