

Only a Soldier Understands - Book 5: Lessons I Learned in the Army (Paperback)

By Clay Lifto

Outskirts Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Clay Lifto knows what it s like to be a soldier - not the great hero, but an ordinary guy performing his duty, raising his family and trying to live the Christian life. In this 5th book in his series, Only A Soldier Understands, he becomes a bit reflective in his personal story as he shares some life lessons he learned as he enters the Army a second time. He branches out into a new phase of his military experience, past the Middle East, past Vietnam, and into the spy games of the European Cold War. As the chapters of Clay s life continue, he shares amazing things that can happen in a soldier s life when he makes a commitment. Not a lecture, not a Bible study, just a personal story of God s grace. Clay explores not only the physical realities of deployment, but also the emotional and psychological growth and challenges that come from experiences ranging from finding the woman of his life to frustrations with civilian life to the relationship with his family back home to breaking up with his...
