

Get Ready, Get Set, I Do! (Paperback)

By Charlie Brackett

Clarion Word, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Get Ready, Get Set, I Do! is a self-help book written for those who are approaching the matrimonial altar, but it also offers sound, practical advice to all couples whether married a few or many years. Anyone who wants to make marriage better, has the courage to examine themselves and their relationship honestly, and possesses the will to make needed improvements will profit from time spent with this book. There are plenty of references to experts in the field establishing the fact that without careful examination and diligent effort any marriage is at risk, and there are liberal references to biblical principles that set forth the attitudes and behaviors that build happy and successful relationships. An easy read, this book brings key points home through 108 self-awareness questions, which focus on all aspects of the marriage relationship. Every person, either married or planning to be, needs a personal copy. The author, Charlie Brackett, has a varied experience. A businessman turned preacher of the gospel, he has served as a missionary and elder of the Lord s church, and has been married to...
