Extensive guideline! Its such a great go through. It is definitely basic but surprises in the 50 % of the pdf. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Heather Cleaver has been teaching in the Catholic Schools for more than ten years through the Archdiocese of Chicago. She has acquired her Masters Degree in Education through the University of Illinois at Chicago. Heather has taught preschool, first grade, and second grade. She has taught Mathematics while employed through the Catapult Program for first through seventh grade. She has taken the role of Choir Director for four consecutive years at her school. For the past six years, Heather has produced plays at her school with help from her co-workers and the dedication of her students. Heathers passions include spending time with her family, crocheting, bike-riding, gardening, and practicing yoga. She currently resides in Illinois. I have had the honor of viewing this play as written and directed by Heather Cleaver, and I have also been honored to have co-directed this play three times . . . What makes this play spectacular is how the characters come alive so that the audience feels both the characters pain and their joy.
