Complete pronation is a position of the greatest elegance and grace, and is one most agreeable to the eye as well as to the feelings. He continues, Tennyson knew this when he described Vivien (trying to arouse the impassioned Merlin) thus: Curved an arm about his neck, Clung like a snake; and letting her left hand Droop from his mighty shoulder, as a leaf, Made with her right a comb of pearl to part The lists of such a beard as youth gone out Had left in ashes. Factors In Evaluation The most favourable position in which fixation of the radioulnar joints may ensue is with the radius fixed midway between pronation and supination. In this, the site of election for ankylosis of these joints, the hand is most useful for dressing, eating, and...
