LESSONS FOR ALL AGES: REMEMBER THY CREATOR (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Lessons For ALL Ages is inspired from a glance at our present generation. These lessons are not limited to any generation, but are true throughout all generations. I pray we listen to the lessons of life. I ve been watching and witnessing this generation for a long time and just have to say some things I believe will help both young and old people. One thing is for certain; whatever subject or idea one can bring up, I think about people, but especially young people. When we are godly examples to the younger, we take care of our moral and spiritual lives simultaneously. When we consider all of what is happening in today s time, I cannot help but to think of the young. Young people are dying lost everyday at alarming rates, while many of us go along living our everyday and casual lives. Many of us do not do anything to help young people. We ought to give them a chance; love them for a change. Why? - Because there are plenty of individuals who do not love them, but hate them. Let us accept reality.and actually do something in our power, to help reality. Yes, reality is what we live in now, however, we have the power to change our reality. The concerns of our time are not only over the young, but also the older people. So, shortcomings aren t just in the lives of young people, but shortcomings/failures extend from the older people. The older people (not all) have missed something in rearing the young. We have missed the mark when it comes to instilling godly values in children. When we miss the mark in rearing...
