Portugal - that is the southern way of doing things, with fizzing vinho verde, fine port wine and stunning scenery. Like a large garden, lush green and full of blossom, resplendent with colour and wonderfully fragrant, the country is a feast for all the senses. With MARCO POLO Portugal you will discover a land full of interesting variety and sometimes even exciting contradictions. In an area about one sixth the size of France, stunning beaches alternate with cliffs and mountains, pulsating cities with remote villages and magnificent palaces with battlemented storybook castles. This practical, pocket-sized guide whisks you across the fertile plains and the lush wine-growing areas of the north, through the cork forests and orange groves...
