Indeed, it has been said that Jay received more college confidences long before he was a freshman than were entrusted to the most popular undergraduate. Whether this saying is true or not there is really no telling, for Jay never seemed able to appreciate the delicious spice of student gossip. Besides, at times his memory served him exasperatingly ill. It comes from the manager of one of the least promising football teams that he subscribed ten dollars to the cause without so much as being thought of as a possible contributor, and once, as everybody knows, when the game was going the wrong way, he gathered a crowd of schoolmates about him...
