Carried Away: A Collection of Wrapsapes and Nursery Rhymes

By Joylynn Charity Wong

Guardian Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 44 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 8.0in. x 0.1in. Where one dream ends, another begins. . . Most of the time, when Mommy gets out her wraps, it means that Baby gets to climb in for warm snuggles against her chest or a ride on her back where he can peek over her shoulder to see the big, bright world passing by. Many days, the wraps mean a long walk through the hills or a trip to the grocery store for avocados. But sometimes, while Baby is fast asleep and sweetly dreaming, Mommy uses the wraps to create small wonderlands for him to explore when he awakes. He has tea parties with puppies, carnival fun with elephants, and even sprouts wings so he can soar with the birds at sunrise. Baby never knows what magical daydreams may await him when his sleepy eyes open to greet the morning light. Come along with Baby on his grand adventures as he gets carried away! JoyLynn is an artist, poet, and babywearing enthusiast who enjoys living life in awe of Gods incredible creativity and boundless love. She is blessed with a wonderful husband and one-year-old baby boy, and together they...
