As a victim of domestic violence and single mom, Kamika Graham is no stranger to betrayal, hurt and pain. In her personal memoir she is speaking of the trauma from her ex-husband (husband number two) and kids father. At several times during the physical, verbal, financial and mental abuse Kamika just wanted to die and go to Heaven with God. It was so bad that she didn t want to live anymore. She became hopeless and felt defeated often times throughout the marriage but God kept her. She was a devout Christian woman who lived, breathed and hoped in God but faced many trials and tribulations. Jermaine was a Christian as well, or was he? Diamond in the Rough is the process that God took Kamika through with her ex-husband to make her stronger so that she could help other women in similar situations or those who have been through domestic violence. It was a very tough journey but she made it through and came out more than a conqueror, she is an OVERCOMER and SURVIVOR. She doesn t look like what she s been through and after the storm of domestic violence, has realized that she has always been a diamond because she is created in God s image and likeness. Diamonds have to go through lots of pressure to be made and Kamika had to endure hurt and pain being married to Jermaine to receive the anointing over her life.
