I have received teach me to trust more and more in thy promises. Grant that I may be able to remember some circumstance of thy loving-kindness to me this day which shall assure me of thy gracious interposition, and be a sweet comfort to me in the hour of my future distress: accept my sacrifice of unfeigned praise and thanksgiving for thy great goodness. Thou makest night that we should return from our several labours, and humbly rest in Thee: give me sweet and refreshing sleep, that I may remember no more my sin and misery, and be renewed in the forgetfulness of all my earthly cares for every fresh trial, and strengthened to seek first thy heavenly kingdom. I am purchased by thy most precious blood: keep watch over thy flock, and over me, a sheep of thy pasture, this night. And now my conflict is over for another day, suffer me not to faint in my weariness; cheer my drooping soul with thoughts of peace: shield my defenceless spirit with thy love; and if I wake to the conscience of my sins, make me sensible also of thy presence, through the watch of the night; let me not fail to perceive thy Spirit, saying, It is I; be not afraid. Be favourable unto me, O Lord, that I may quietly take my rest under the shadow of thy wings, without fear, or care, or spiritual darkness: and when the dark end of this mortal...
