This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 75: February 20, 1913 Turnin g from these predictions of spiritual darkness and hunger, let us see What God in His mercy had provided for the future. A dream was given to N ebuchadnezzar, the Jewish king, to Which none of the wise men could give an interpretation except Daniel. The latter was favored in the sight of God, and, through the divine wisdom bestowed upon him, he was enabled to make known unto the king the meaning of his dream. The king beheld a great image, the head of which was of fine gold; his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. The head of gold represented the great kingdom of which Nebuchadnezzar was ruler: this would eventually be superseded by the kingdom represented by the breast and arms of silver, and each would thus be overthrown by another, until the ten kingdoms represented by the ten toes of iron and clay alone remained. In the days of these kings, says Daniel, shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which never shall be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever (dan. 2: Another very important revela tion concerning the setting up of this kingdom is given us by J ohn the Revelator. He declares that he saw another angel ?y in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and...
