Excerpt from The Kingdom: A Descriptive and Historical Handbook to Fife, With Map and Illustrations Kingdom, with its quaint old towns and their historic memories - is the subject of this little book. All minute uninteresting details will, if possible, be avoided; things familiar to our ears from childhood s days will be found gathered together, though it may be in confused order. In those days of quick locomotion the traveller through any land is apt to forget little facts and stories connected with localities, the memory of which, could they be called to his mind at the time, would enhance the pleasure of his hurried journey or holiday visit. It is all the more necessary, therefore, that we should be sometimes reminded of historical facts connected with localities.
