

Patty at Home

By Carolyn Wells

1st World Library, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Mrs. Elliott s library at Vernondale a great discussion was going on. It was an evening in early December, and the room was bright with firelight and electric light, and merry with the laughter and talk of people who were trying to decide a great and momentous question. For the benefit of those who are not acquainted with Patty Fairfield and her relatives, it may be well to say that Mrs. Elliott was Patty s Aunt Alice, at whose home Patty and her father were now visiting. Of the other members of the Elliott family, Uncle Charley, grandma, Marian, and Frank were present, and these with Mr. Fairfield and Patty were debating a no less important subject than the location of Patty s future home. You know, papa, said Patty, you said that if I wanted to live in Vernondale you d buy a house here, and I do want to live here, -at least, I am almost sure I do. Oh, Patty, said Marian, why aren t you quite sure? You re president of...
