The Spanish vessels wrecked in battle by the naval vessels of the United States during the war with Spain, and now lying along the coast of Cuba, are the property of the United States. That island being now temporarily within the jurisdiction of the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury, under section 3765, Revised Statutes, has power to make such provision for the sale or other disposition of such wrecked vessels as he may deem necessary. Section 3755 applies as well to wrecks which are the property of the United States as to the vessels of private owners which have been wrecked, abandoned, or become derelict. The acts of June 14, 1880 (21 Stat. , 197), and August 2, 1882 (22 Stat. , 20), which authorize the Secretary of War to remove sunken vessels or craft which...
