Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.It is now estimated that an alarming 50 million people worldwide die each year from drug overdose or health related issues. Suicide claims another one million victims, or one death every 40 seconds - mainly from those who couldn t find their way out from the grips of their unhappiness and dis-ease. But, this blight pales in comparison to an even bigger problem: Another two billion people struggle around the globe with depression and anxiety disorder. Of this, 220 million are children --- something that they learned from their parents or caretakers. The cost to society, to our families and loved ones is beyond staggering. Clearly, the untreated misery business is crying out for help! The recovery industry in the U.S. alone has exploded to $35 billion in size. There aren t enough beds and addiction counselors in rehabs and detoxs to meet the escalating need. Another $1 - $2 Trillion more is sadly wasted each year on health care remedies that don t work. God only knows what the figures and statistics are worldwide. As the world gets more complex, challenging and stressful, more people young and old alike -- are falling victim to substance and behavior abuse, and untreated misery. Addiction and suicide are now among the top 10 leading causes of death in the U.S. -- and that doesn t include the many others who never even make it into recovery. Addiction to opioids, and the resurgence of heroin use worldwide has reached epidemic proportions among young people. Each week, I see several people disappear and die from the many 12-step meetings that I attend. Others report about the loss of loved ones that never even made it into...
