PRAYERS AND REFLECTIONS

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 298 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Do you want a deeper relationship with God? Do you wish you could better understand or appreciate the Bible? Do you have trouble finding the words to pray? Welcome, brothers and sisters in Christ. Please join me in the most important aspect of our lives, the journey seeking the way of the Light of the World. For if we truly follow Christ's teaching and serve God, then we shall be able to follow Jesus to salvation and Life eternal in Heaven. Dare to change. Rather than giving up something for Lent, please set aside some time each week to join me for a yearlong pilgrimage. We will bring the scripture into our lives by reading, reflecting, and praying. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will deepen our understanding, strengthen our faith, and walk closer with God. David Coffman is a Christian, physician, and writer who grew up in a very small town in Washington State. His education includes: Doctor of Medicine from the University of Oklahoma, Radiology Residency at OU, and Neuroradiology Fellowship at Barrow Neurological Institute in Phoenix, Arizona. Dr. Coffman is a voracious reader with an insatiable curiosity. His religious education started as a child and has continued both informally with self-study and formally including Education for Ministry from the School of Theology, University of the South, and a class on Hebrew Bible at St. Paul's School of Theology. Although Dr. Coffman has known since a child that God was preparing him to write, he always assumed that it would be in science fiction. One Lent he started writing prayers, and much to his surprise, God called him to write this book. Dr. Coffman and his wife live in Oklahoma. Contact: David.L.Coffman@gmail.com...
