Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Catalogue of an Exhibition of Line Engravings: Designed to Illustrate the History of the Art During the Past Four Centuries A very few of the great painters possessed the technical skill and the patience to engrave or etch their own designs. Thus the line engravings of Albrecht Durer and the etchings of Rembrandt are incomparably finer than any reproductive work done by another hand could be, but in the great majority of cases the creative artist employed and directed the skilled engraver and fully understood the value of that subordinate art which multiplied and perpetuated his own original design. Thus Raphael found and made a great engraver of Marc Antonio Raimondi; Cornelis Cort worked in Titian s own house; Rubens formed and trained a notable band of engravers, and so did both Sir Joshua Reynolds and Turner. And these engravers (themselves consummate artists) soon learned to comprehend and to interpret, with special insight and skill, the style of the master who guided them. Under these circumstances the common objection that such engravings are not original is quite out of place. When Marc Antonio or Desnoyers engraves a picture by Raphael, no one wants originality on their part; Raphael supplies that, but what we do demand is absolute fidelity to his original.
