Her early life was not one of outward religious observance, but was rather one of privilege and learning. As a young woman she became an atheist; a painful decision with which she struggled for two years. While in Rome, visiting the temples, she was moved by the beauty of her surroundings and a longing for her Lord so painfully real that the longing could not be denied. The three books she published in her lifetime were all anonymously written; keeping the white-heat of her spirit-living a secret from the world, even from her beloved husband. One of the dilemmas that Staveley struggled with was that of the feminine principle . She saw across history and religion a tendency by those in religious power, (by men who were otherwise great and holy), to look down on womankind. She feared that in God s eyes also she was not of the acceptable sex . Her works include: The Golden Fountain; or, The Soul s Love for God (1919), The Romance of the Soul (1920), and The Prodigal Returns (1921).
