Orlin G. Oroschakoff, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Preview is a tragicomic novella with two main characters, Kaputev and Bogoman, strangers to each other who are crossed-outs - state enemies in a dictatorship behind the Iron Curtain. As they sit in an empty theatre waiting for the previews to start, their personal stories unfold, highlighting the absurdity, comedy and terror of living under a dictatorship, including the perverse intimacy of the narrator's realization that his thoughts are being picked up and read by his companion. During the film, a lavish production about draining a Siberian swamp, Bogoman's story of a ludicrous weekend at a government resort develops. Even as the story becomes more and more intense and complex, the characters can never shake the omnipresent fear of lurking authorities. As Bogoman continues his tale of time spent with a professor, writer, informant, mother-daughter duo, and a tragic toilet accident, it becomes clear that he chose to hide in the theatre after a weekend gone spectacularly wrong. Witty, complex, suspenseful, and full of insight, Orlin Oroschakoff's Preview brings a fresh voice and exciting perspective to the literary canon.
