Excerpt from Active Love a Criterion of Spiritual Life: A Sermon Preached in Substance at St. James s Church, Piccadilly, Before the Church Penitentiary Association on Thursday, May 15, 1862 This character of teaching - always most forcible is especially needful for those who are recent converts to the Faith of Christ. To them, the lines which separate truth and falsehood, sin and holiness, are not as yet so clear that the sight of these bold and prominent landmarks can be dispensed with. Such persons are still, to a great extent, feeling their way. That which may be a platitude or an axiom to others, has for them all the welcome freshness of a newly discovered and original truth. Writing for such as these, who sit on the lower forms in the school of Our Blessed Saviour, the Apostle of Love makes himself at once understood by them; while yet his words, that seem so simple, reveal an unfathomable depth of truth to those who have known Our Lord best and longest. In mapping out the New Life for...
