Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Yes Child: A Simple Guide to Raising Great Kids is a real world telling of the deliberate decisions Marcy and Rod Frantz made creating the family they always wanted. The Yes Child is a common sense guide describing in straightforward language how you can insure mutually rewarding relationships with your children. By identifying the 3 simple Essentials of Yes Parenting; Believe in Yes, Create Your Own Family Culture and, Lead with Communication, Marcy and Rod offer a simple blueprint for building positive parent-child interactions resulting in thoughtful, kind, confident children. By utilizing these positive steps you guarantee respectful, meaningful, lasting relationships with and between your children, as well as pre-empting behavioral problems at every age and instilling lifelong positive esteem. Because of its adaptability to families of every size and description, its simplicity and ease, The Yes Child is destined to become a great contribution to the world of parenting literature. Marcy Kayser Frantz and Rodgers Frantz are lifelong artists and entrepreneurs, but their most fulfilling occupation has been as the parents of two remarkable children. Friends, family, teachers and associates prompted them to write The Yes Child: A Simple Guide for Raising Great Kids to share the secrets of how they raised their two sons. They share those secrets here in a short, anecdotal, compelling yet easy read. They discovered while writing the book that they had communicated a respectful, loving and empathetic guide to parenting that actually pre-empts behavioral problems at every age! Their entrepreneurial spirit and the encouragement of early readers and critics lead them to initiate a national and international dialogue on the best practices of contemporary parenting, starting with simple The Yes Child...
