Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Two Lectures on the Constitution of the United States: Concluding a Course on the Modern State, Delivered in the Law School of Columbia College, During the Winter of 1860 and 1861, to Which Is Appended an Address on Secession Written in the Year 1851 The author of these Lectures, emboldened by a friendship which he esteems a high honor, laid the manuscript before the Hon. Horace Binney, with a request that he would make such annotations as might appear necessary. The opinions of the senior member of the American Bar, and of so profound, philosophical, and elevated a jurist, must needs enhance the value of any discourse on the American Constitution. When, therefore, the manuscript was returned, the author could not allow himself to withhold from his readers Mr. Binney's notes, although they were strictly intended as memoranda for himself alone. He obtained permission, not indeed without repeated entreaty, to publish these along with the Lectures - a liberality for which he wishes to express his grateful and affectionate acknowledgment.
