Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book was written by a dyslexic entrepreneur native to St. Louis with the hope of encouraging and inspiring all in life and in business, with or without learning disabilities, to strive to their highest potential. The journey you will embark on while reading this book will take you back to the beginnings of the Cultural Arts Center of St. Louis, LLC. The original inspiration, the mission and most of all the future visions are uncovered during this book to help and encourage others find their path in life. This book guides you along some business basics while demonstrating how to use your own abilities to your advantage. Being dyslexic is not a hindrance but rather a plus, and with this book you will learn how to channel that energy in the corporate world. The book serves as a guideline to all in business by providing essential tips and motivational incentives. It takes determination to be an entrepreneur; it takes stronger determination, more ambition, profound courage and mental will-power to be a dyslexic entrepreneur. So began my journey, so began my life, and so began my Cultural Arts Center. - Linsey A. Daman.
