Excerpt from The Times and the Men: A Satire The Times and the Men. Ithuriel s spear revealed Angel eyes The Devil, lurking in obscure disguise; Its magic touch displayed the reptile foe, - Infernal author of terrestrial woe. Thus, Satire oft the Evil One exposes, And drives him from his Paradise of roses, From Vice the drapery of Virtue tears, And to the world the Hypocrite declares. O Satire, Virtue s true and steadfast friend, Tis thine to teach the wayward Times to mend, - To lash the insolent, the vain, the proud, And point out Rascals in the drifting crowd; To show where humble merit pines and weeps, While crime on crime the sordid sinner heaps; To throw on Court and Camp and Church and State A light, - their mysteries to penetrate; Pretending Patriots, with presumptuous boasts, Robbing the Country in official posts; About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
