Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . We are not human beings having a spiritual experience; we are spiritual beings having a human experience. - Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, The Phenomenon of Man (1955). Herb McClees selected poems on a variety of topics are like pieces of stained glass from a shattered window whose subject takes a lifetime to discover. Readers are invited to savor the poems and step back with the poet and imagine the restored window for themselves. Divided in five sections: Heart, Community, Art, Being and Spirit; the poetry follows the stages of life. The drum is used as an organizing metaphor. Poems are generally less than a page in length. They are meant to be savored, read aloud and shared.
