Don't settle for an unsettled life when you're so close to the key to real change.We're often told big problems require big solutions and that taking big steps is the best way to reach our most sought after goals. The 2 Degree Difference simply says otherwise.So many of us have read self-help books, attended relationship conferences and financial seminars, or started new diets that promised 180-degree changes but delivered nothing. Now, in the short time it takes to read this remarkable book (part parable and part journal), you'll discover a biblical principle for lasting change that is so simple yet has the power to finally move your life forward.Marriage, work, money, or whatever matter: see how small things can change everything!Editorial ReviewsAbout the AuthorJohn Trent is an award-winning author, nationally noted speaker and counselor, and the president of The Center for StrongFamilies. His previous books include The Blessing and Leading from Your Strengths.
