And there are false ways in which the two elements may be reconciled--in the doctrinaire (Euthyd. 305), in the pseudo-philanthropist, in the political idealist, or in any premature and superficial attempts to rest society on a liberal and philosophical basis. There is a real reconciliation of them when the king is also a seer, or the statesman in the highest sense is a philosopher, equal to the immediate present, rising also into the more distant future. The words of the text may also be regarded as a sort of Greek prophecy of a millennium: I heard a voice crying, The kingdoms of the world are become the kingdoms of wisdom and truth. The passage is the keystone of the Republic. In other...
