Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Reply of Dr. Kingsford to the Strictures on Volume VIII. Of the History of Canada in the Review of Historical Publications Relating to Canada I will briefly deal with the personal allusions to myself. I have to act in this case as many men have to do in a difficult position. I have to throw myself on my character and refer to the text of the book. Mr. Wrong, in his barbarous English, once before this occasion wrote of me that I was not a stylist, whatever the word may mean; an expression to call forth from the Toronto press a contemptuous reproof, as he doubtless well remembers. My text can be adduced to show the character of the English I write, as well as the care taken by me to represent what I hold to be the truth. I am told that in this book there is an excessive amount of careless writing. If the defects claimed be admitted, they must not be attributed to this cause. My sheets in form were jealously read by a friend, to whose criticism they were subjected. From feelings of delicacy I do not mention his name. He is an associate of King's College, London, one of the highest honours attainable in the world of letters a graduate of Oxford, where he took high honours and obtained a reputation rarely surpassed; in Montreal he is known by his brilliant and learned contributions to periodical literature, by his admirable and unsurpassed translations of Horace, and, among other writings, by a volume of poems of the highest merit. He is a member of the Royal Society. Although unnamed, his identity...
