

Burning at Last (Paperback)

By Crystal Rister

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Rachel A Olson (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Sara Denton Thirteen years ago a tragedy sent her fleeing from her home. Now she returns, in hopes of a new start. Fate has other things in mind as after going out for a drink she realizes that everything she believed to be true, isn't, and everyone she thought to be gone, was not. Jarroth Denton Seeing Sara in the bar nearly undid him, but having her so near was the true torture. He sent her running thirteen years ago to save her life, and now that he has her back, he was never letting her go again. But the same evil that tore their lives apart has returned. Can Sara live with Jarroth being more than just a man, and trust him with her heart? Will Jarroth be patient enough to await Sara's decision? Can they escape the past that has returned to finish what it started? Find out as the Burn consumes them, and the danger nears. For readers 18 years and older only. Contains violent and sexual content.
