McLeod. WAC Clearinghouse and Parlor Press In WAC AND SECOND-LANGUAGE WRITERS: RESEARCH TOWARDS LINGUISTICALLY AND CULTUR-ALLY INCLUSIVE PROGRAMS AND PRACTICES, the editors and contributors pursue the ambitious goal of including within WAC theory, research, and practice the differing perspectives, educational experiences, and voices of second-language writers. The chapters within this collection not only report new research but also share a wealth of pedagogical, curricular, and programmatic practices relevant to second-language writers. Representing a range of institutional perspectives-including those of students and faculty at public universities, community colleges, liberal arts colleges, and English-language schools-and a diverse set of geographical and cultural contexts, the editors and contributors report on work taking place in the United States, Asia, Europe, and the Middle East. TERRY MYERS ZAWACKI is associate professor emerita of English at George Mason University. She has published on writing in the disciplines, writing assessment, WAC and L2 writing, writing centers, and writing fellows. She serves on the editorial boards of Across the Disciplines, The WAC Journal, and the WAC Clearinghouse. She...
