Pay the teacher what she is worth and, if your budget is inadequate, run your schools until the spring district meeting and state the case to your electorate. The voters will not fail you, for New Hampshire will never permit the school privileges of its children to fail. As state superintendent of public instruction, I want this letter to be read with care by all members of school boards and by patriotic citizens, and I hope that the state press, the clergy, and all organizations which mold public opinion, will join. in every effort to protect our schools. E. W. BUTTERFIELD, State Superintendent. October 16, 1918. Recommendations. I recommend that by appropriate legislation certification by the Department of Public Instruction be required of all teachers in the public schools. That the plan provide for the revocation of certificates for cause and insure to all teachers now in service probationary certificates...
