Dragonfly Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 40 pages. Hercules, a classroom guinea pig, has a revelation when he watches the first graders grow plants from seeds. He wants to grow things, too! And during summer vacation (spent with the teachers dad), he gets his chance. With the help of a friendly rabbit, Herky prepares the soil, carefully plants pumpkin seeds, and waits. And waits, and waits. One of the most important things he learns about gardening is patience. Its very hard to go back to school when fall comes--especially because his pumpkins arent quite ready yet. But in October, the teachers dad arrives with a big pumpkin for her class--that just mysteriously grew in his yard! And Herky begins dreaming about next years garden . . . Kate Duke has created a funny and charming book that shows not just how seeds grow into plants, but also how you need patience to see a long project through. This item ships from multiple locations.
