Medallion Press, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Honneure Mansart, orphaned child of a lowly servant, never dreamed that she would one day find herself at the glittering palace of Versailles as a servant to the young and lovely Marie Antoinette, future Queen of France. Nor could she have imagined the love of her life would turn out to be her beloved foster brother Phillipe, who also served the young princess. Their lives were golden. But the young princess, Antoinette, has a mortal enemy in Madame du Barry, the aging king s mistress. And Honneure has a rival for Phillipe, a servant in du Barry s entourage. Together the women scheme to destroy both Antoinette and Honneure. Then Louis the XV dies, and his grandson inherits the throne. Marie Antoinette becomes the Queen of France. Honneure and Phillipe, their lives inextricably entwined with those of the king and queen, find a second chance together. Yet as France's political climate overheats, sadness and tragedy stalk both couples once again .tragedy, and a terrible secret that might lead Honneure to the guillotine in the footsteps of her queen.
