Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Medical Profession: Being the Essay to Which Was Awarded the First Carmichael Prize of 200 by the Council of the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland, 1879 In accordance with the conditions of competition prescribed by Mr. Carmichael, the author has aimed at giving, first of all, a plain and unvarnished account of the state of the Medical Profession, in its various departments of Physic, Surgery, and Pharmacy, in Great Britain and Ireland; the state of the Hospitals and Schools of Medicine, Surgery, and Pharmacy; and the state and mode of examination, or of testing the qualifications of candidates, of the different Licensing Colleges or Corporations in Medicine, Surgery, and Pharmacy. He has endeavoured - and at a very considerable expenditure of both time and trouble - to state the actual facts, so far as they could be ascertained from the sources of information within his reach, and so to state them as to make them thoroughly intelligible to lay readers. This publication will not be simple to get started on looking at but quite entertaining to learn. It generally fails to cost an excessive amount of. You will not feel monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).
