Excerpt from Statement of the Committee of the St. Gabriel Street Church, Detailing the History of the Recent Proceedings, by Which the Congregation Was Deprived of the Services of the Free Church Deputies, and Brought to the Verge of Dissolution: With an Appendix, Containing Correspondence and Documentary Evidence We now come to a developement of the spirit and principles of Church discipline, which have given birth to all the proceedings, of which we complain, and also, of the practical exemplification of these principles in Cote Street Church since its organization. Mr. Redpath has avowed his persuasion that it were better that the dozen families, which, it was erroneously believed, were the utmost number that would continue to cleave to the St. Gabriel Street Church, should be left to the hazard of perishing, than that his schism of disciplinary reform should not be carried into complete Operation. Is not this sentiment clearly embodied, and very consistently acted out in the proceedings which we have recorded? This doctrine, we hesitate not to pronounce, unscriptural, antichristian. To those who have even a rudiments] knowledge of the genius and end of the Gospel dispensation, it cannot admit of doubt, that the man who was capable of forming and uttering this sentiment, has yet to learn what he the first principles of the oracles of God. If there be a truth pre-eminently clear, certain, fundamental, peculiarly characteristic of the Gospel, and lying every where upon its very surface, palpable to the dullest and most careless eye, it is, that the Gospel shall be preached to every creature, and as it offers a free full salvation to the chief of sinners, it specially and emphatically charges its...
