She came forward, the outlines of her figure blurred in the half-light. She came forward like a film star, or rather like the ideal woman in an adolescent s dream. I gather you wish to talk to me, Inspector . . . but first of all please sit down . . . Her accent was more pronounced than Carl s. Her voice sang, dropping on the last syllable of the longer words. Maigret has been interrogating Carl Andersen for seventeen hours without a confession. He s either innocent or a very good liar. So why was the body of a diamond merchant found at his isolated mansion? Why is his sister always shut away in her room?
