

The Magician's Way: What it Really Takes to Find Your Treasure

By William Whitecloud

New World Library. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Magician's Way: What it Really Takes to Find Your Treasure, William Whitecloud, Besieged by financial and marital turmoil, Mark Vale meets a group of contemporary alchemists who take him on a bewildering journey outside his comfort zone, teaching him how to transform difficult situations into golden opportunities. The book starts off with a memory of Mark's boyhood in Africa, where he is bitten by a poisonous snake and nearly dies, and goes from there to a lesson in golf and aiming for the right target. Along the way, he spends time in a cave-like restaurant where he meets and befriends a billionaire who advances Mark's career, and other interesting characters. His initiation into magic appears complete when he manifests a massive financial windfall, but it soon becomes apparent that his material success will not hold his family together. Mark can't sustain his level of belief in the magic around him and begins focusing on the wrong targets. His life, career, and marriage are put into harm's way by his own actions. With his world seemingly crumbling around him, Mark embarks on the ultimate quest to uncover what it takes to...
