Comprehension Through Conversation: The Power of Purposeful Talk in the Reading Workshop

By Maria Nichols, Richard L Allington

Heinemann USA. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Comprehension Through Conversation: The Power of Purposeful Talk in the Reading Workshop, Maria Nichols, Richard L Allington, "Maria Nichols offers not possible lessons but full descriptions of actual lessons. Here you'll find no ivory-tower examples of what might be, but examples of what is already available in many classrooms. These are classrooms of the sort that we hope our children and grandchildren are lucky enough to encounter - not once in a while but routinely." - Richard L. Allington "To say this is an exceptional book about teaching comprehension would be to trivialize it. With superb examples and flawless logic Nichols demonstrates how to orchestrate conversations that build literate habits of mind." - Peter H. Johnston, author of "Choice Words" "Comprehension Through Conversation captures the power and essence of purposeful, engaging instruction and reminds us of the real purpose for comprehension instruction: to understand the deeper issues in texts and discuss these ideas to construct meaning." - Nancy L. Akhavan author of "How to Align Literacy Instruction and Standards" When it comes to reading comprehension, talk isn't cheap, it's a valuable way to help children think, articulate their...
