Summary: Stan R. Mitchell, the highly touted author of the Marine Sniper novel "Sold Out," lays down the lead in this epic Western tale -- a story of how even good must often become soiled in order to win."Little Man, and the Dixon County War" is a fast-paced, action-packed book set in the Western era. The kind of hope that Zachary brings can't go on, so the West's most powerful cattle baron -- McConnell -- decides he must kill this increasingly legendary law officer. McConnell can't get at the cautious Zachary on his home ground, so McConnell dispatches an evil gang of gunhands to kill Zachary's best friend and abduct the man's wife. McConnell knows Zachary will come to rescue the woman and in doing so, will enter Dixon County, or what the locals call Devil's County. Here, in this godforsaken stretch...
