Commune Editions, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. One of the most important poets in Scandinavia. --Kamilla Lofstrom, Information At once practical handbook, philosophical inquiry, and series of fables set in Putin s Russia, The Sabotage Manuals throws a wrench into the machinery of contemporary language, generating strange solidarities between saboteurs past and present. Sourced from political pamphlets and factory workers diaries, Borjel s profound poem allows for the most expansive (and explosive) sense of sabotage. Ida Borjel s first book, Sond (2004), received the prestigious award Katapultpriset. Since then, she has written over six works, including Skaneradio, Konsumentkoplagen: juris lyrik, and MA.
