THE PACIFIC UNITARIAN (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 336 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Excerpt from The Pacific Unitarian It was greatly concerned with private morality and personal etiquette. But the new conscience is social and world conscious and is far more concerned with public good. The old conscience was the conscience of a Pharisee; the new is the conscience of a Christ. The old conscious was petty and external. Little virtues were large in its sight and sin was sin if it got into the press. The new conscience does not put conventional morality first but the real thing first. Like the soldiers in France it can excuse minor infractions of conventional ethics, but never selfishness and yellow cowardice. It looks beneath all outward pomp and show, and measures men as God measures them. It is assumed that the epidemic, though not wholly abated, is within reasonable control, and the effort to arouse our churches to action will be no longer postponed. The first Sunday in January will be the date for the inauguration of the campaign. Dr. Wilbur has kindly offered to visit Fresno, and at Stockton Rev. Richard Warner Borst will join the Field Secretary in reopening the services suspended during the summer vacation. Rev. John Haynes Holmes, minister of the Church of the Messiah, has received a unanimous call to succeed Dr. Jenkin Lloyd Jones as minister of All Souls Church, Chicago, director of Abraham Lincoln Center, and editor of Unity. Mr. Holmes has announced to his people that he has taken the call under consideration. Three things are the essentials in the happiness of human life, something to do, something to love, something to hope for. - Minot J. Savage. Never do great thoughts come to a man while he is discontented or fretful. There must be quiet...
