Excerpt from Law Creating the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Colorado Section 3. The term public utility, when used in this act. includes every common carrier, pipe line corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, person or municipality operating for the purpose of supplying the public for domestic, mechanical or public uses, and every corporation, or person now or hereafter declared by law to be affected with a public interest, and each thereof, is hereby declared to be a public utility and to be subject to the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the commission and to the provisions of this act; Provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to irrigation systems, the chief or principal business of which is to supply water for the purpose of irrigation. Section 4. A Public Utilities Commission is hereby created which shall be known as The Public Utilities Commission of the State of Colorado and which shall consist of three members who shall be appointed by the Governor, except as in this section otherwise provided. Aaron P. Anderson is hereby designated and named as one commissioner, and shall hold his office until the second Tuesday in January, 1915; Sheridan S. Kendall is hereby designated and named as one commissioner and shall hold his office until the second Tuesday in January, 1917; and immediately upon the taking effect of this act the Governor shall appoint a commissioner who shall hold his office until the second Tuesday in January, 1919. The term of office for each commissioner thereafter to be so appointed by the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, shall be for the...
