

Religious Addiction, Mental Health and Spirituality

By Regina Pinto-Moura, Regina Johnson

Xulon Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 230 x 186 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The most destructive Frankenstein was created in the name of God, among Brazilians in Somerville, Massachusetts. An unhealthy faith system it was established. As a result, many Brazilians may not trust any authority. They are becoming unable to discern who supports their integrity, and who not. Visibly, the mental health of some religious leaders became an issue. The questions that arise at the intersection of faith and mental illness are not easily answered. It is impossible to deny the damage caused by some leaders around the Boston greater area. Faith has been destroyed, lives have been lost and an entire generation has been spiritually, emotionally and psychologically mutilated. This book represents an action to take responsibility before God and the second generation of Brazilians in the United States. In order to understand the reasons behind this process of deconversion the challenge is to consider some aspects of religious addictions, mental health and spirituality. The Brazilian community has been diagnosed with a spiritual tumor. This illness has the potential for causing isolation. Unless addressed, this sense of isolation...
