Excerpt: .the action of the governor in this case was an outrage upon civil liberty and constitutional rights. I want to say again that the governor did just what the physicians of Georgia wanted him to do, nothing more and nothing less. The idea of Governor Candler vetoing this bill because it would give Dr. M. C. Hardin the right to administer medicine, when the osteopathist no more pours calomel and oil down his patients than the maker of a Steinway piano would open up its chords and pour calomel and dovers powders in on the piano to put it in tune. No true osteopathist ever gave a pill or powder. They are no kin to Christian Scientists, and they do n t run with the faith cure crowd. It is a science based on anatomy and physiology. If the governor had seen what I...
